

Mohammad Mamun
Research Officer

Mohammad Mamun is a sociologist and Research Officer. Mr. Mamun is a Research Officer of Bangladesh Public Administration Training Centre popularly known as BPATC. BPATC is the apex training institute in the public Sector mainly responsible for imparting training for the Civil Servant and also works as think tank of the Government. Mr. Mamun also worked various capacities in BPATC such as Assistant Director PPR (Planning, Programming & Recording), Logistic and Dormitory. He has worked as Course Coordinator in 54 Foundation Training Course (FTC), P58th FTC, P60th FTC and P63rd FTC which is mandatory for the newly recruited civil servants. Mr. Mamun worked as Research Associate as many as Six Research Projects. He is also coauthor of "Attitude of Family towards Autistic Children: A Study based on Dhaka City Corporation" which was published on Lok Proshason Samoeeky of its 63rd Volume.

Mr. Mamun did his Bachelor & Master from Department of Sociology, University of Dhaka. He had completed and attained different training in home and abroad such as Foundation Training Course, TOT Course, Conflict Management and Negotiation Technique Course, Research Methodology Course, Report Writing Training (Home) And Strategic Leadership Training (Singapore), International Kaizen Convention (Japan).

His areas of interest are Research, Event Management and Public Policy.

Mr. Mamun has different experience on various extra curriculum activities such as Debate, Badhon (Voluntary Blood Donate and Collection Organization) and BNCC (Naval Wing).